It's day 4 of winter spirit week!! Today's dress up day is white lies. Wear a white t-shirt written with an obvious lie about yourself!! As a reminder please follow the school dress code and wear a uniform if you are not dressing up. The activity in the cafeteria during lunch today is Wrap A Person As Gift. Join in on the fun and win some prizes!!

Congratulations to Mr. Ancheta and Ms. Villegas' class as they presented their Project Based Learning at the library during period 3 yesterday. The PBL was energy sustainability. After the presentations were over, both classes were presented with a proclamation from Mayor Victorino declaring December 14th as Lahainaluna High School Energy Sustainability day! Awesome job all! We are proud of you! I mua Lahainaluna!

Advanced Health Care Services students were trained how to work with physical and mental changes that occur with aging! They got to apply these skills at the Maui Adult Day Care Center! Awesome! We are proud of you! I mua Lahainaluna!

Have you ever wanted to learn to SURF and possibly be on the Lahainaluna Surf Team? Now is your opportunity to experience and learn one of the most amazing sports in the world. Thanks to the Lahainaluna Surf Team, the LahAina Surf Shack has offered to provide surf lessons for any Lunas who want to learn to surf for only $30 a lesson. Lessons will start on January 13th and continue Fridays after school at Breakwall. For more information or to sign up please see Mr. Niko in room L30 or email him at nicholas.miller@k12.hi.us.
