Stop by I building and take a look at the beautiful mural that our student council and leadership members made for Valentine's Day. It is a collage of paper hearts written with positive messages by students

Juniors, prom is finally approaching! Registration begins next week in Mr. Mahoe's room during lunch only. To register, students must bring their School ID, have no withholds, payment in cash only, signed permission form/contract, and proof of full vaccination. Permission forms can be picked up from Ms. Ellis' room during lunch or recess. If you are not vaccinated or have other questions, please look through the prom info slideshow sent to your emails by Mr. Mahoe.

Do you enjoy science and being outside? Looking for something to do during spring break? Don't mind earning a few college credits through the University of Hawaii Community College system? If you answered yes to any of the above questions, the NALU Studies program is looking for students to participate in their spring break session on Maui this year. Deadline to apply is February 20. For more information, please check the email from Mr. Barry Takahashi on your school email. Mahalo!

Pathway 2 Purpose Innovation offers students an opportunity to explore careers in key business sectors through collaborative activities under the direction of industry leaders. Past internship participants report that they were able to help solve real world problems under expert guidance and use their experiences as a springboard for college admissions or entry-level jobs. For more information, please visit our school website for the link. Mahalo!
