Q: Do employees still need to show proof of vaccination status or negative COVID-19 test results? What about visitors to state facilities?

A: With the expiration of Governor David Ige's latest COVID-19 emergency proclamation on March 25, current employees will no longer be required to provide vaccination status or negative COVID-19 test results. Visitors and contractors to state facilities will also no longer be required to show vaccination status or a negative COVID-19 test result. All HIDEOE employees, contracted service providers, visitors and students must still complete a Daily Wellness Check before going to school or work to help us keep our schools healthy and safe!

Congratulations to our robotics team as they reached the semi-finals and were ranked 4th overall in the Hawaii regional tournament with a 12-5 record! To watch their matches, please go to <https://www.thebluealliance.com/team/3882/2022>
