The Hawai'i Commission to Promote and Advance Civic Education (PACE Commission) is pleased to announce the inaugural Law & Justice Academy for Maui County high school students! The Maui Nui Law & Justice Academy will be held on Maui from October 4-6, 2022 (fall break for public school students). The Academy is looking to accept twenty high school students from Maui (including Hana), Moloka'i, and Lāna'i for this amazing opportunity.

The purpose of this three-day Academy is to introduce high school students to issues of law and justice; build student's skills in discussion, debate, analysis, and advocacy; and provide students with tools and inspiration to become active and involved citizens of their communities. To this end, a curriculum has been created that is unique to the Maui community. Another goal of the program is to increase interest in college, law school, and legally related careers among young people who come from backgrounds and populations that are traditionally underrepresented among attorneys, judges, and political decision makers. Community leaders from across Hawai'i will be working with and mentoring participants in the Academy.

Interested students can apply at the following webpage: <https://forms.gle/fkuzcdH2RhfrWTLE6>

The application deadline is August 31, 2022. Academy sponsors and collaborators include: PACE Commission; University of Hawai'i Maui College; State of Hawai'i Circuit Court for the Second Circuit; U.S. District Court for the District of Hawai'i; University of Hawai'i at Mānoa William S. Richardson School of Law; Maui County Bar Association; and Hawai'i State Bar Association.
