Good luck to Kuha'o Murray who will be performing a free outdoor concert tonight night from 6pm to 7:30pm at the Lawn fronting of the Baldwin Home Museum. We are proud of you! I mua Lahainaluna!

Are you a class of 2023 graduating senior? Are you fluent in Hawaiian or English AND a second language? You may be eligible for the HDOE Seal of Biliteracy! The eligibility criteria are:

• Students must demonstrate fluency in English (or Hawaiian), and a second language. In addition to a minimum of 3.0 cumulative GPA in English Language Arts or Hawaiian Language Arts courses required for the high school graduation diploma, there are other options for candidates to demonstrate proficiency in English or Hawaiian.

• Students graduating NEXT YEAR (class of 2024) will be required to demonstrate an Intermediate Mid or higher proficiency level on ALL parts of a language exam where applicable.

If you wish to demonstrate fluency in a second language through AP testing, you must submit your application for the Seal of Biliteracy no later than 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 1, 2022, and YOU are responsible for arranging AP testing. Lahainaluna does not offer language AP tests. Otherwise, you must apply by 3:00 p.m. on Monday, November 7, 2022 which is the first application deadline. If you miss that first deadline, you may apply between 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday, January 4, 2023, and 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 31, 2023. This is the final deadline.

Please contact Ms. Olson at ashley.olson@k12.hi.us if you have questions, and for a link to the application. Language exams other than AP tests will be held in March.
