Aloha Lahainaluna! How do you mālama honua? This weekend, we are thrilled to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Hawai'i's beloved voyaging canoe, Hōkūle'a! That's 50 years of education, exploration, and enlightenment!

Join us in this festive journey by participating in our door decorating contest! Each Po'okela class is invited to express how you "Mālama Honua" through your creative designs.

Please submit pictures of your decorated doors via Google Form by Friday afternoon. The winning Po'okela class will be announced next week and will receive a special treat!

Good luck to everyone! Let's make this celebration truly memorable!

We're excited to announce that Da Luna Store now has school pennants available. These high-quality and vibrant pennants are perfect for decorating your classroom, office, or even gifting it to a friend/family member. Only $15!

Attention Lunas. If you're wanting fun activities to happen next school year, stop by P1 to pick up a Student Council application today. We have less than 2 weeks to submit your application. Please note that Auntie Cass won't be here this Friday or next Monday. I mua Lunas!
